Local guides for coastal NSW.

We publish the Now titles. Each one tells a region what's on, where to go and who to call. Advertise in one region, or along the coast.

ABOUT

One name, region by region.

Now Regional Media runs local guides for regional coastal NSW. Every title has the same three parts: an events calendar, places worth knowing about, and a directory of local businesses. Locals use it to plan the weekend and find a tradie; visitors use it to find somewhere to eat. Advertisers get both, in one region or several.
